Some of these considerations include whether you'd like to use your hot tub to be above ground, built-in, or even inflatable. Next, you'll need to think about how you intend to use the hot tub. How much effort and expense are you willing to put into operating and maintaining it? If you're environmentally-conscious, you may also want to consider the environmental impact of your hot tub both during its manufacture, operation and post-use. Keeping your key points in mind, this guide will help you make a decision that checks off all your boxes by presenting you 20 of the best hot tub brands of 2022 and everything they offer! No matter what brand you choose, we strongly suggest investing in a new hot tub cover to protect your spa and extend its longevity so you can enjoy its health and wellness benefits for years to come! You can purchase your cover by following this link. How do we rank the Top 20 Hot Tub Brands? While there are a large number of hot tub brands available heading into 2022, you'll probably want to restrict your research to the best for? Most hot tub manufacturers make a bit of something for everyone, but they all tend to have one or two things that they do particularly well. Some of the better known brands outright specialize in one particular thing and only look at other areas as an afterthought. After all, you wouldn't want to spend a lot of time researching a swim spa company when you are looking for a massage therapy hot tub! If you haven't done so already, read through some of our articles on getting ready to buy a new hot tub so you're ready to start researching the specific brands and models in this list. This overview will take a look at the 20 best hot tub brands available in North America to help you focus your search and save you time and effort. First, our research comes from the number of replacement covers we make each year for specific brands. With over 30,000 covers sold per year, we have a pretty good indication on what hot tubs are selling! Next, we rely on over 60 years of service in the hot tub brands. Lastly, we listen to our customers and their pros and cons on the hot tubs they have chosen for their backyard. So we feel pretty confident that the list presented is very accurate. So, without further ado, The Cover Guy gladly presents a roundup of the top 20 best hot tubs for so long that their brand name has come to mean any kind of spa or hot tub: people with other brands of tub will still hop in "the Jacuzzi®" for a soak. There was really no question about where to put Jacuzzi® on this list: this brand is the benchmark against which all other brands tend to be measured. With the largest network of dealers, Jacuzzi® will be able to provide your hot tub with the applicable service needed through its lifetime. Jacuzzi® tubs generally work without problems and do so for a very long time especially when fitted with a tapered weathershield cover. Jacuzzi® owners often comment on the great balance between the number of options available and ease of use. Because Jacuzzi® uses aerated jets (air is mixed with the water) you can safely use essential oils in your tub without damaging the water filtration system with residue, which is a great way to relieve stress and muscle pain to improve your overall wellness. They also use waste heat from the motor to help maintain water temperature, which provides some decent energy savings over the life of the spa. The Jacuzzi® Story How the Jacuzzi® hot tub business started is a wonderful story: Candido Jacuzzi® was merely trying to make his son Ken's disabilities less painful. He found that the warm pools in the hospital were helping Ken and thought about creating a home version: something portable so Ken could enjoy the benefits daily. And so that is what he did! He started building a rejuvenating hydro-therapeutic spa out of their family tub with a motor that agitated the water. From there, the Jacuzzi® brand grew and branched out to making home spas! The development over the years is amazing and Jacuzzi® has been at the forefront of innovation with the most dealer outlets around the world to service their customers. It is also important to note that Jacuzzi[®] makes some very well-respected walk-in bathtubs. If you are facing space constraints, this could be a very good option for you. #2 Hot Spring Spas and Hot Tubs - Hot Spring Spas Number two on our list of the best hot tub brands is Hot Springs Spas. Similar to Jacuzzi® in terms of price points and reliability, Hot Springs Spas has one key advantage over many other brands: the attention to design in their upper level hot tubs. to build for comfort and design. With this innovative approach, you can be assured that these hot tubs give you a comfortable, well-designed seat, which is an important factor to consider if you plan on using your hot tubs is the ready availability of parts for most of their line. That includes many of their older models that may be well out of warranty but are still going strong. Thus, maintenance and service may be less stressful if you choose this brand! Hot Springs Spas Have the Option of a Salt Water System One other feature that really sets Hot Springs apart from the crowd is the availability of a salt water system for many of their models. The primary advantage of a salt water system is that it is much easier to keep clean and sanitary as salt kills bacteria. Hot Springs has three independent lines of hot tubs that they offer, with each level going up in function as well as price. Keep in mind that you are only going to buy one hot tub in the next decade, so we suggest looking at the top of the line offered if it is in your budget for the best quality and durability. You'll get way more bang for your buck in the higher end of the Hot Spring Spas and hot tubs! With dealers all over the world, service and repair is simple and easy. The top side digital readout this brand provides will guide you through a series of error messages to identify any issues with your hot tub, so you can rest easy knowing that maintenance will be easy to navigate. #3 Canadian Spa Company makes hot tubs, swim spas, and portable spas as well as manufacturing saunas, gazebos, and surrounds for those looking for beautiful backyard design. In addition, they have received awards in the "plug and play spa" category for their portable and inflatable spas. Canadian Spa Company can be found in just about every major box store around the world, making this brand easily accessible. In North America, they can be found in Home Depot, WalMart and Lowes just to name a few! Canadian Spa Company's Inflatable and portable spas. Some of their inflatable and portable units can even be put in the trunk of a car! This is truly what someone can call portable — which is great to note if this is something important to you. You can set up this spa anywhere in minutes and take it from one location to another: which is great if you're looking to use your spa at home and the cottage. Canadian Spa Company supplies portable hot tubs and swim spas all over the world to both small dealers and large box stores. This makes them the biggest global player in the market and one of the best hot tub brands in the world going into 2022.
